

I urge the commission to not allow the deployment of Broadband Over Power Line (BPL) technology due to its RF interference with HF communications. This new technology would essentially disable any operation on the HF frequencies as an operator in the Amateur Radio Service. At the very least, deep notch filtering for the Amateur Radio segments of the spectrum must be required. The spectrum reserved for Amateur Radio must be protected for use by amateurs in the event of emergency.